INTRODUCTION

The material gathered in this short book is actually discarded data. It was compiled while the author was preparing his book "A Few More Left-The Story of Isaac Hillman." Most of the Hillman data in this volume I found had no connection with my particular Hillman ancestors. But as time went on, I discovered that I had collected such a valuable treasure-chest of Hillman-New York State data that it would be a waste not to compile it into a book; thus, this short volume.

This book is meant only as a supplement to other Hillman data. Perhaps it will stretch one ancestry back a little farther, but it is more likely that it will help expand an already-traced family line.

I would like to thank the many County Clerks and County Surrogates of upper New York State for their time, as well as my parents and Miss Linda Mac Arthur for their encouragement and patience.

written on

24th of APRIL, 1848

recorded on

10th of MARCH, 1851

The last Will and Testament of Henry Hillman of the town of Broadalbin, County of Fulton & State of New York

I, Henry Hillman considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory blessed by Almighty God for the same do make and publish this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following, that is to say:

FIRST. I give and will to my beloved wife Sally Hillman aforesaid all the household furniture and one cow to be at her disposal as she shall deem meet and proper.

SECONDLY I give and will to my beloved wife Sally Hillman aforesaid all the rest of my personal property & bonds and mortgages with full authority to make use of any part or the whole of the same if necessary for her maintenance & support during her natural life.

THIRDLY If at the decease of my beloved wife there is any part of my estate remaining after taking out her necessary support and maintenance I give and will to my beloved nephew Henry Hillman fifty dollars and to the children of my deceased son Henry Hillman five dollars to be equally divided between them.

FOURTHLY It is my will and pleasure that the remainder of my estate if any be equally divided between my beloved children Ephraim M. Hillman, Sally Ash, the wife of Peter Ash and Susan Ferguson the wife of John Ferguson or in case of their decease to their children.

FIFTHLY I do hereby appoint my beloved son Ephraim M. Hillman executor of this my last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 24th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Henry Hillman (L.S.)

The above instrument consisting of two pages was now here subscribed by Henry Hillman the testator in the presence of each of us and was at the same time declared by him to be his last Will and Testament and we at his request sign our names hereto as attesting witnesses.
